Career Opportunities

An A Level in Fine Art will support progression to higher-level courses in all the Art and Design disciplines. Application can be through a foundation course at Art College before applying to a degree course in a specialist area, or directly onto a degree course at university. Studying Art and Design for its own sake develops transferable skills, which can take you into employment. Success at this Level requires determination and dedication.

The Fine Art course provides opportunities for students to develop skills, knowledge and understanding relevant to creative industries such as Fine Art, Photography, Architecture, Graphics, Fashion, Interior Design, Theatre Design and Animation
