ICT

Cambridge Technical Level 3 Introductory Diploma in IT

Entry Requirements

Grade 4 in GCSE English Language or GCSE English Literature and

Grade 4 in GCSE Mathematics or

Level 2 merit in Cambridge National Certificate in ICT (or equivalent)

Course Overview

This course is designed with those students in mind who have a love for ICT and who want to learn in a practical way that's directly related to the IT sector.   The course will give you a range of specialist knowledge and transferable skills which will provide you with the opportunity to either enter an apprenticeship, move directly into employment or progress to a related Higher Education (HE) course – the options are open.

Exam Information

Duration: 2 years   Exam Board: OCR   Contact Mrs A Kansara/Ms Bouri

The course comprises 5 units across the two years:

2 Mandatory units	- Unit 1 - Fundamentals of IT
	- Unit 2 - Global Information
3 Optional units	- Unit 3 - Cyber Security , exam
	- Unit 6 - Application Development, coursework
	- Unit 17 - The Internet of Everything, coursework

Qualification Gained

On successful completion of this course you will gain the "Cambridge Technical Level 3 Introductory Diploma in IT " which is a qualification recognised by many universities alongside A Levels.

Each unit is graded Pass, Merit and Distinction which combine to give an overall grade.

Career Opportunities

The skills and knowledge gained on the course will lead to a variety of jobs/careers in the world of IT including Junior Web Application Developer, Junior Application Developer, Junior Software Analyst, Technical support, digital technologies, application development or data analysis.

There is also the opportunity to progress onto a Level 4 apprenticeship such as Network Engineer or Software Developer. The opportunities that this course provides is endless.

Subject Links

Any subject but especially Business Studies, the Sciences, Mathematics, Geography